The Sensorium is located in Emmental and is a space designed for experiencing through the senses. The concept of this interactive museum is based on the ideas of Hugo Kükelhaus (1900-1984), a German philosopher and educator. At the approximately 80 stations present in the museum, the focus is on discovery and experience. Our space allows us to become aware of natural phenomena such as balance, rhythm and shapes and brings them closer to young and old.
